F#m   Bm
They made up their minds, And they started packing
        C#   F#m
They left before the sun came up that day
    F#   Bm
An exit to eternal summer slacking
      F#m   C#   F#m
But where were they going without ever knowing the way?

F#m   Bm
They drank up the wine and they got to talking
        C#   F#m
They now had more important things to say
      F#   Bm
And when the car broke down they started walking
 F#m   C#   F#m
Where were they going without ever knowing the way?

              E   A   E
CHORUS: Anyone can see the road that they walk on is paved in gold
          F#m   C#
        It's always summer they'll never get cold
              D   A   E
        They'll never get hungry, they'll never get old and gray
                  A   E
        You can see their shadows wandering off somewhere
            F#m   C#
        They won't make it home, but they really don't care
              D   A   E   C#
        They wanted the highway, they're happier there today...today

```
       F#m                                 Bm
Their children woke up, and they couldn't find them
          C#                               F#m
They'd left before the sun came up that day
        F#                           Bm
They just drove off and left it all behind 'em
  F#m                              C#                       F#m
Where were they going without ever knowing the way?
